

Recommendation letter

Dear Sir or Madam:

My name is Temur Mstoiani. I am member of Non-profit (non-commercial) legal entity "Georgian Professional Information Technologies Specialists Association", IT Specialist.

I am writing this document to support Vladislav Gurabanidze petition for immigration to the U.S. I enthusiastically support the application for Vladislav Gurabanidze.

Vladislav Gurabanidze is a remarkably skilled and outstanding professional whose pioneering works is of critical importance in World IT/Web research endeavors and advancement of public IT/Web in the national scope. His achievements thus far have surpassed those of the majority of his colleagues as proven by the many citations of his works by other colleagues and informative publications in leading scientific journals, newspapers and TV.

I know his works, success and achievements well. I got acquainted with his new projects for the USA. These projects will be very useful for the USA.

Vladislav Gurabanidze is an exemplary professional in the IT/Web industry. Too many specialists would like to work with him.

I think he will use his talent and great experience and do a lot of good, modern and useful IT/Web projects.

Vladislav Gurabanidze substantial achievements are above what is accepted from his peer group and have proven him as both a nationally and internationally renowned scholar in the area of IT line. His work is undoubtedly in the national interest of the U.S. I firmly believe that Vladislav Gurabanidze will be very beneficial in his continued work, and I fully recommend and support his I-140 petition be approved.

Sincerely,
Temur Mstoiani
